Mr. Luke, Chair of Governance and Compensation Committee, called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Mr. Luke asked for a motion to approve the minutes of the March 22, 2018 meeting of the Governance and Compensation Committee, as published. After motion duly made and seconded the Minutes of the March 22, 2018 Governance and Compensation Committee were approved. A copy of the minutes can be found at on the VCU website at the following webpage http://www.president.vcu.edu/board/committeeminutes.html.
REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Ms. Michele Schumacher, Board Liaison, provided a review of the current Committee Dashboard. Ms. Schumacher noted that two items on the Dashboard, review of bylaws and university governing documents, and oversight and management of annual presidential evaluation and compensation process, are green. She reminded the Committee that the bylaws were revised and restated in October 2017; in addition, the Board adopted at the Committee’s recommendation a new Presidential Evaluation Policy in December 2017. There are two yellow items that are in progress, the first being the alignment between VCU and VCU affiliated entities when possible. Ms. Schumacher explained that all agreements have been received and are currently under review to ensure compliance with its terms. She also stated that the Board does receive annually a report on the financials on the various Foundations. The other item that is yellow is oversight of board training and development, and noted that this is a work in progress.

ACTION ITEM

VCU Regulation 8 VAC 90-30 Guidelines for Demonstration on the Campus of Virginia Commonwealth University

Ms. Jacqueline L. Kniska, University Chief Integrity and Compliance Officer, stated that the VCU Regulation 8 VAC 90-30 Guidelines for Demonstration on the Campus of Virginia Commonwealth University needs to be retired and removed from the Virginia Code insofar as it is significantly outdated regulation and has been rendered obsolete with the recently approved university wide policy Reservation and Use of Space.

Mr. Luke asked for a motion to recommend to the full Board adoption of the resolution entitled “Authorization for President to Retire and Remove Demonstrations Regulation in Virginia Code”. After motion being duly made and seconded, the recommendation to the full Board to approve the Resolution was unanimously adopted. A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Attachment A and is made a part hereof.

PRESIDENTIAL EVALUATION

Mr. Luke then indicated it was again time to begin the evaluation of the President for his performance during FY 2017-2018. Ms. Schumacher noted that policy as adopted in December 2017 provided a sample questionnaire that could be utilized in obtaining input from the Board members. It was expected that the questionnaire would be forwarded to members of the Board with their input due back on or before June 15, 2018.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Mr. John A. Luke, Jr., Chair, adjourned the meeting at 10:45 a.m.

[DRAFT] Expectations of Ethical Conduct

Policy Type: Board of Visitors
Responsible Office: Integrity and Compliance Office, Audit and Compliance Services
Initial Policy Approved: New
Current Revision Approved: mm/dd/yyyy

Policy Statement and Purpose

As members of the university community, the responsibilities to educate, innovate and inform, alongside the expectation of ethical conduct, are taken seriously. Each member of the university community is responsible for developing and educating others in an environment that is supportive, collaborative and safe. To achieve VCU's goals, each member of the university community must foster an environment that celebrates and supports the university community and its members.

The values and ethical principles of Virginia Commonwealth University are outlined in the university's Code of Conduct. This framework helps to articulate behaviors expected in an environment in which all individuals have the opportunity to thrive and feel respected, engaged, innovative and productive and are encouraged to lead by example. All individuals must conduct themselves in accordance with the university’s ethical standards outlined in this policy and the Code of Conduct, which are central to and in support of VCU's mission. These standards serve as a lens for every decision. Employee conduct that falls below these standards may result in VCU taking steps to improve performance through the performance evaluation process. Certain conduct may warrant disciplinary action that accords with the nature and severity of the conduct.

In everything VCU undertakes, it sets its expectations high. VCU's commitment to the highest standards helps attract and retain great people, inspire student success, create and innovate, and build a strong and supportive university community that is singularly focused on excellence.

The purpose of this policy is to emphasize the conduct expected to best uphold the university’s commitment to its ethical standards, which were first approved by the Board of Visitors in 2005 as the Code of Ethics and thereafter outlined in the Code of Conduct as the ethical standards. This policy is not intended to replace, and may be supplemented by, other more specific university policies that currently exist or that may be adopted in the future.

Recognizing the various and complex ethical questions that may arise while engaged in university activities, this policy can serve only as a general set of rules. When faced with ethically unclear situations, individuals are expected to consider the university’s commitment to the highest ethical standards and seek guidance from their managers, supervisors or other appropriate resources to ensure that this commitment to ethical conduct is maintained at all times.
Exceptions:
The VCU Board of Visitors and students (not also employed by VCU) are not covered by this policy. Instead, students follow the Student Code of Conduct and Honor System policy and the Board of Visitors follows BOV Bylaws and a specialized Board of Visitors’ Ethical Leadership policy that sets forth the ethical expectations for executing the member’s service role.

Noncompliance with this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. VCU supports an environment free from retaliation. Retaliation against any employee who brings forth a good faith concern, asks a clarifying question, or participates in an investigation is prohibited.

Revision History
This policy supersedes the following archived policies: VCU Code of Ethics – reclassified as Ethical Standards in 2013 and incorporated, unadulterated, into the VCU Code of Conduct (initial version).

NOTE: This policy is considered New as it is significantly different than the original Code of Ethics approved by the Board, August 25, 2005 and incorporated into the VCU Code of Conduct in 2013. In time, it was determined more elaboration was needed on the basic ethical standards and illustrated expected behaviors, hence this policy.
1. If I have knowledge of or suspect misconduct, am I expected to report it?

Yes. In accordance with the Duty to Report and Protection from Retaliation policy, all individuals are expected to report any known or suspected misconduct as soon as possible. Remaining silent and not reporting concerns or issues is not in concert with VCU’s expectations and permits misconduct to occur.

2. Who determines discipline of employees once misconduct has been determined?

It depends. Misconduct is defined as violations of laws, regulations or our own policies. Overall, the appropriate management function in the area determines final disciplinary actions. This policy does not supersede any other existing policies addressing employee discipline or due process afforded to employees. VCU’s established procedures related to management’s authority and discipline remain intact and apply.
